The Star Spangled Banner

By Francis Scott Key 1814

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly steaming?
 And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
 O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
 Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
 What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
 As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
 Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
 In full glory reflected now shines in the stream:
 'Tis the star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
 That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
 A home and a country, should leave us no more?
 Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
 No refuge could save the hireling and slave
 From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
 And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave,
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
 Between their loved homes and the war's desolation.
 Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the Heav'n rescued land
 Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.'
 And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Changing of the Guard

As we enter into a new term let's take a moment to thank our outgoing officers for their hard work and dedication.

We would also like to congratulate our incoming officers. We look forward to what the future holds.

Ruth Aston Bartholomew

The Salvation Army

Our own Ruth Aston Bartholomew is newly in charge of the Senior Center at The Salvation Army. If you would be interested in making donations to the center, here is what Ruth suggests:

The Senior Center could use items for bingo prizes. Dollar store items are perfect, such as any hygiene items for both men and women, small tools and household gadgets, notepads, pens, snack items (ie. Small packs of pretzels, crackers, and sugar free gum) are all great ideas to help brighten up the day of our seniors.
